

SNACKPAC

PARTICIPATION AUTHORIZATION FORM

What is SnackPAC?

The SNAC International Political Action Committee (SnackPAC) serves as the sole federal political action committee representing the snack industry. SnackPAC is funded by voluntary personal contributions of SNAC International members and supports candidates for political office who understand the broad array of issues facing the snack industry. SnackPAC is a bipartisan PAC.

Why do I have to fill out an authorization form?

The Federal Elections Commission (FEC) requires trade associations like SNAC to receive an authorization from a member company before communicating with you or your employees about information related to our PAC.

Please note, federal law permits a company to only authorize solicitation of employees by one trade association federal PAC per year.

Who is eligible to complete an authorization form?

You are encouraged to fill out an authorization form if you are:

- A United States Citizen, or green card holder
- A salaried employee of a SNAC International member company
 - Who is not paid overtime but for whom taxes are withheld
 - Executive and administrative personnel
- Shareholder

Yes, I authorize SnackPAC to communicate with:

- Executives and administrative employees of this company.
- Only the following executives and administrative employees of this company.
